Suspect arrested in “Operation Stolen Dreams” voluntarily surrenders his Nevada Real Estate license

Las Vegas – On June 29, 2010, the Real Estate Commission accepted the voluntary surrender of Shirjil Qureshi’s real estate salesman license.

The voluntary surrender was in lieu of other discipline and was based upon criminal charges of conspiracy to commit wire fraud, mail fraud and bank fraud involving the use of his real estate salesperson’s license.

The surrender also recognized the matters filed by the Division in a Complaint and Notice of Hearing relating to naming of false consideration as well as other charges in six residential purchase agreement transactions.

Qureshi was one of the individuals arrested by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in “Operation Stolen Dreams”, the federal government’s largest mortgage fraud crackdown to date.
