Employee Management Relations Board Appoints New Commissioner

Las Vegas – The Employee Management Relations Board has appointed Brian Scroggins as Commissioner of the agency. The role was previously held by Andy Anderson, who resigned in January of this year.

The Employee Management Relations Boards (EMRB) is one of the 14 agencies under the purview of the Department of Business & Industry. EMRB is involved in the process of collective bargaining and labor relations for local government employers, local government employees and employee associations/unions. Created by Nevada Revised Statute 288, the agency provides resolution of unfair labor practices; resolution of issues related to mandatory bargaining subjects; resolution of disputes related to recognition and determinations regarding appropriate bargaining units. The goal of the EMRB is to foster the collective bargaining process, to provide support to those involved in that process, and to settle disputes as they arise in a neutral and timely manner.

“We appointed Mr. Scroggins to this position because we were impressed by his overall qualifications and his longstanding service to the State of Nevada,” said Seaton J. Curran, Chairman of the EMRB. “We are pleased to have him take the helm as EMRB Commissioner.”
