Business & Industry Holds Thanksgiving Food Drive

Carson City — The Department of Business & Industry (B&I) is holding a Thanksgiving food drive beginning today, November 1, to help needy families during the Thanksgiving holiday.

“Many Nevadans are still having difficulty getting by,” said Director Terry Johnson. “As the holidays approach, we hope to help fill the pantries of people in need and show our support of communities throughout our state.”

Canned and boxed non-perishable food is being collected at the following locations:

Business & Industry
Director's Office
1830 College Parkway,
Suite 100
Carson City

Business & Industry
Director's Office
555 E. Washington Avenue,
Suite 4900
Las Vegas

Donations will be accepted during business hours of 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, starting Tuesday, November 1, through Monday, November 14, 2011.

To distribute the donated items, B&I is partnering with HELP of Southern Nevada (HELP) in the south and Friends in Service Helping (FISH) in the north.

The food collected will be distributed by HELP and FISH to struggling Nevadans during Thanksgiving week.

For more information, call (702) 486-2756.
