 MEDIA ADVISORY *****

Business & Industry to Participate in Rapid Resource Event for Business Owners
October 20 from 4-7 p.m.

WHAT:

Business owners can get their questions answered by the source at this free networking event. Business owners can meet with local, state and federal agencies and organizations to get information and answers to critical questions. Governor Sandoval has designated the Director of Business & Industry (B&I) to serve as his administration's advocate for small businesses. B&I Deputy Director Ash Mirchandani will be at the event to provide regulatory assistance and small business advocacy.

- The event is hosted by the Southern Nevada Small Business Resource Network and Vegas PBS.
- The event is free, but registration is required. Register at <http://snbrn.eventbrite.com>.
- In addition to B&I, participants include U.S. Department of Commerce, IRS, Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, the Social Security Administration, Vegas Young Professionals, Silver State Works, Nevada State SHRM Council, Nevada Minority Supplier Development Council, Department of Taxation, Nevada Microenterprise Initiative, Nevada State Development Corporation, U.S. Small Business Administration, Las Vegas Urban League, Latin Chamber of Commerce, National Association of Minority Contractors, Bank of America, UNLV's Small Business Development Center, SCORE, Workforce Connections, Women's Business Enterprise Council, and Paychex.

WHEN:

Thursday, October 20 from 4-7 p.m.

WHERE:

Vegas PBS, 3050 E. Flamingo Road

- Interesting visuals will be available throughout the evening.
- Deputy Director Ash Mirchandani will be available to discuss B&I's small business advocacy role.
