Re: 2022 Private Activity Bond Cap Report

Dear Director Reynolds:

On behalf of Nevada Rural Housing Authority (NRHA), I am pleased to provide the following Private Activity Bond Cap (PABC) report for 2022. Subject to your final approval, NRHA will receive an estimated $28 million in local transfers. This year, we asked Clark County, the City of Sparks, and the City of Henderson to transfer their unused bond cap to the Nevada Housing Division to support multi-family housing.

NRHA, as the issuer of MCCs can set the tax credit rate from 10% to 50%. If the tax credit rate exceeds 20%, the IRS imposes a $2,000 annual cap on the tax credit. NRHA has a 20% tax credit rate set for the current MCC program. First-time homebuyers and qualified veterans with the MCC added to their home mortgage will receive an annual mortgage tax credit every year for the life of the loan, as long as they live in the home as their primary residence. When applying for mortgage financing, the lender can use the estimated tax credit as additional qualifying income to help more households qualify to buy a home. The additional qualifying income is beneficial because it increases purchasing power and lowers debt ratios. In a market with rising interest rates, the MCC helps open the doors for more qualified buyers to purchase a home and maintain long-term affordability.

NRHA has sufficient PABC carryforward to meet the anticipated demand and will continue offering Mortgage Credit Certificates (MCCs) to open the door to homeownership for low- and moderate-income borrowers. A powerful and essential homebuying tool, especially in a volatile housing market, the MCC makes homeownership more affordable and attainable for rural Nevadans.

The estimated tax savings will vary depending on the amount of interest paid each year and the actual tax liability for the borrower. Payment examples shown above represent principal and interest payments for a $345,000 mortgage amortized over 30 years.

Home At Last™, a program by NRHA has helped more than 10,000 Nevadans living in rural and frontier communities with down payment assistance, home mortgage solutions, and mortgage tax credits. Our lender and real estate partners serve as program ambassadors and are integral to the success of our award-winning Home At Last™ program.
